"PAJAMA GAME" COMES TO UM CAMPUS FRIDAY

Montana State University thespians bring "Pajama Game" to the University of Montana Theater for one performance Friday (May 19) at 8:15 p.m.

The guest production from the UM's sister school in Bozeman will close a highly successful Masquer season, according to Dr. Firman H. Brown Jr., chairman of the UM Drama Department.

"Pajama Game," a rollicking musical comedy satirizing the foibles of capital and labor, features Signe Landoe as the romantic lead, Babe Williams, union head of the/grievance committee at Hasler's Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory. Chuck Bateman plays Ed Sorokin, a factory executive who falls in love with Babe in the course of a labor-management dispute.

Betsy Hippely is seen as Gladys, the dumb but lovable secretary who contributes much to the hilarity. The role of Hasler, the factory owner, is taken by Lee Hoffman. Others in the cast are Gary Treglown, Ellen Sullivan, Lowell Dightman and Jerry Smith.

Ben Tone is stage director; Ted Hippely, scene designer, and Dan Nelson, musical director.

Reservations for the tuneful show may be made at the University Theater box office (243-4581) from noon to 5 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday and from noon to curtain time Friday.
